

The four zones of the Games

Barra

The Barra da Tijuca district, often simply called Barra, will be the heart of the Rio 2016 Olympic and Paralympic Games. Located in Zona Oeste, or the western part of the city, the area will be a beautiful setting for the competitions. Surrounded by lagoons, mountains and parks, this neighbourhood's lush natural setting will be home to the athletes, and will welcome thousands of spectators and other Games visitors. The Olympic and Paralympic Village, Rio Olympic Park, Riocentro, IBC/MPC and Barra Media Village are all located in the Barra Zone. The Barra Zone will host 15 venues where 15 Olympic and 12 Paralympic sport competitions will be held.

Located in the western part of Rio, the Deodoro Zone is home to Brazil's largest military barracks and Latin America's most populous military community, with 60,000 servicemen and women located in the region. Train lines connect this Olympic zone to the city centre and the rest of Rio. Construction of venues for the Rio 2007 Pan American Games resulted in increased activity of young people in several sports, and it is anticipated that this level of participation will increase further with the opening of new venues for the Rio 2016 Games. This zone will host seven Olympic and four Paralympic competitions.

Deodoro

The Maracanã Zone includes two of Rio's most famous locations: the Maracanã Stadium and the Sambódromo (Sambadrome), in addition to the Olympic Stadium, built for the Rio 2007 Pan American and Parapan American Games, and nicknamed 'Engenhão', after the Engenho de Dentro neighbourhood in which it is located.

The zone, though part of Zona Norte, the northern area, is located close to the city centre in the heart of Rio de Janeiro. Hundreds of people visit the Maracanã complex every day, where they take advantage of its spaces for physical exercise such as walking and jogging. The Maracanã will host the opening and closing ceremonies of the Olympic Games, as well as some football matches. The adjacent Maracanãzinho gymnasium will host volleyball competitions. The athletics (marathon) and archery competitions will take place in the Sambódromo, while the Olympic Stadium will be home to athletics (track and field). The Maracanã Zone will also host archery and athletics (track and field) competitions during the Paralympic Games as well as the opening and closing ceremonies.

Copacabana is one of the city's most famous neighbourhoods. Located in Rio de Janeiro's Zona Sul, or southern area, it has an attractive crescent-shaped beach that stretches over four kilometres and is one of the iconic picture postcard images of the city. On Sundays, the lanes of Avenida Atlântica – the beachfront avenue – are closed to cars, so that the carioca population and visitors can enjoy the pleasant promenade atmosphere. Families and people of all ages may play sport, swim in the ocean or simply relax: that's the Copacabana spirit. With its world-famous beaches, beautiful mountains and globally recognisable landmarks, including the Sugarloaf and Corcovado, the Copacabana Zone will be the perfect setting for the road competitions. With a population of nearly two million people, the zone will ensure that the events held here benefit from an authentically energetic carioca vibe. Copacabana's New Year's Eve celebration, with its monumental fireworks display, is world-renowned. The zone's competition venues will include the sport centres of Flamengo Park, Rodrigo de Freitas Lagoon and the Marina da Glória.
