FOREWORD

Dear Media Representative,

The Men's EHF EURO 2020 Qualifiers mark a major milestone in the history of EHF EURO events, the European Handball Federation's flagship national team competitions. The fact that we will see for the first time 32 teams competing over six rounds for a place at the final tournament, which will field 24 participants, is the result of a process that started several years ago and was put in practice four years ago in Dublin.

When the EHF Congress in September 2014 unanimously voted in favour of the motion to increase the field of participants at Men's EHF EURO from 16 to 24, the foundation was laid for a major positive development. We are now witnessing that the idea of the EHF EURO of and for the entire European handball family is gaining more and more shape. EHF EURO 2020 shall be a festival for all European handball nations.

The interest to be part of EHF EURO 2020 has been overwhelming. A record of 48 of the EHF's member federations registered for the event. Two qualification phases have already been played. Greece, Estonia and Italy were the three group winners that advanced from the first qualification phase. Faroe Islands, Turkey and Kosovo stayed in the race for the final tournament berth by making it to the podium at the Emerging Nations Championship in Bulgaria last summer. These six, together with 26 other teams are now vying for 20 spots that are still available – alongside the already qualified teams of the three hosts, Sweden, Austria and Norway, as well as 2018 champions Spain – at the final tournament. The top-two of each of the eight groups as well as the four best third-ranked teams will eventually qualify.

For you, the media covering the qualifiers, the EHF Media and Communications Department has prepared this media guide which not only provides you with an overview of all 32 teams participating, but also gives you an extensive overview of the teams' records, such as biggest win or most goals scored in an EHF EURO qualifier, as well as all head-to-head statistics for the eight qualification groups.

EHF EURO 2020 will not only be the first with 24 teams, but also the first which will be hosted in three countries: Sweden, Austria and Norway. Already now I would like to express my gratitude to the three organisers for their dedication, their excellent cooperation and all the hard work they have already put in since their bid to host EHF EURO 2020 was successful four years ago.

On behalf of the European Handball Federation, I take this opportunity to wish the teams participating in the EHF EURO 2020 Qualifiers, in the spirit of fair play, the best of luck and I hope to welcome you in Sweden, Austria and Norway in January 2020.

Michael Wiederer
EHF President

QUALIFICATION & FINAL TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

The Men's EHF EURO 2020 Qualifiers, starting from October 2018, will be played by 32 national teams from across Europe.

These 32 teams are: Belarus, Belgium, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Faroe Islands, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Israel, Italy, Kosovo, Latvia, Lithuania, FYR Macedonia, Montenegro, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Russia, Slovenia, Serbia, Switzerland, Slovakia, Turkey and Ukraine.

EHF EURO 2020 hosts, Sweden, Austria and Norway, as well as EHF EURO 2018 champions, Spain, are directly qualified.

At the qualification draw in April 2018 the 32 teams were drawn into eight groups of four teams each.

Group 1	Germany, Poland, Israel, Kosovo
Group 2	Croatia, Serbia, Switzerland, Belgium
Group 3	FYR Macedonia, Iceland, Turkey, Greece
Group 4	Slovenia, Netherlands, Latvia, Estonia
Group 5	Belarus, Czech Republic, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Finland
Group 6	France, Portugal, Lithuania, Romania
Group 7	Hungary, Russia, Slovakia, Italy
Group 8	Denmark, Montenegro, Ukraine, Faroe Islands

The qualification will be played in a round-robin system with each team facing its respective opponents in one home and one away match.

The qualification matches will be played

- Round 1 & 2 from 24 October to 28 October 2018
- Round 3 & 4 from 10 to 14 April 2019
- Round 5 & 6 from 12 to 16 June 2019

The teams ranked first and second of each group and the four best third-ranked teams of all groups qualify for Men's EHF EURO 2020 in Sweden, Austria and Norway. To determine the four best third-ranked teams, only the results of the matches against the first and second ranked teams in the respective group will be taken into account.

At the same time, the three lowest ranked teams among the fourth-ranked teams will have to play the EHF EURO Qualifiers 'relegation round' in which they face the two winners of phase 1 of the Men's EHF EURO 2022 Qualifiers and the winning team of the Emerging Nations Championship 2019. The three teams that emerge victorious from this relegation round will have a place in the second phase of the Men's EHF EURO 2022 Qualifiers.

Final tournament in three countries

The Men's EHF EURO 2020 will be played over 18 days from 9 to 26 January 2020. It is the first to be played with 24 teams, the first to be hosted by three nations and the first at which the final weekend is played over three days.

Sweden will organise two preliminary and one main round group plus the final weekend. Austria will host two preliminary round groups and one main round. The 'New Nidarohallen' in Trondheim (image below), which is currently under construction and will seat 8,000 people, is the venue for the two preliminary round groups played in Norway.

QUALIFIERS – PHASE 1

For nine federations the qualification to the Men's EHF EURO 2020 had already started in November 2016 (for the teams of groups B and C) and January 2017 (for the teams of group A). Greece, Cyprus, Faroe Islands, Estonia, Turkey, Kosovo, Italy, Luxembourg and Georgia had been drawn to three groups of three teams each and formed the core of the first qualification phase.

After the matches had been played, Greece, Estonia and Italy emerged as group winners and advanced to the second, the main, qualification phase. The finish was particularly nerve-wrecking in group C, as only a last-second goal in the final match against Luxembourg granted Italy the ticket to the next stage.

EMERGING NATIONS CHAMPIONSHIP

The 2nd IHF Men's Emerging Nations Championship, which took place from 12 to 18 June 2017, offered a last chance to book a place in the second phase of qualification for the EHF EURO 2020, with the top-three-ranked teams qualifying for the next phase.

After one week of play, Faroe Islands claimed the 2017 trophy following a one-goal victory over Turkey in a dramatic final with a score of 26:25, while Kosovo won the bronze medal with a clear win versus Cyprus.

Teams playing the Emerging Nations Championship had to be comprised of players aged between 16 and 24 years, with a maximum of three players aged above 24 allowed per squad.

ENGELBERT STRAUSS BECOMES QUALIFIERS' PARTNER

German workwear manufacturer engelbert strauss has been named presenting partner of the Men's EHF EURO 2020 Qualifiers.

The deal, brokered by Infront, the European Handball Federation's exclusive media and marketing partner for the EHF EURO events, brings a presenting partner to the EHF EURO Qualifiers for the first time.

As part of the new agreement, engelbert strauss will continue its involvement with the final tournaments of both the men's and women's events. As well as presence at the Women's EHF EURO 2018 in France in December, the brand will be an official sponsor at the Men's EHF EURO 2020 in Sweden, Austria and Norway in January 2020 and the Women's EHF EURO 2020 in Norway and Denmark in December 2020.

Over six rounds of qualification and in 96 matches, engelbert strauss will benefit from brand exposure on LED boards, sleeve advertising on the playing shirts of participating teams, two floor stickers in newly created positions on court as well as additional activation rights. A new composite logo will be integrated into related digital channels, print materials and media backdrops.

NEW PLAYING SCHEDULE FOR EURO 2020

The European Handball Federation has extended the schedule of the Men's EHF EURO 2020 from 17 to 18 days, with the tournament now set to start already on 9 January. In a historic first, the EHF has also confirmed that the matches for third and fifth places will be played on 25 January, the final weekend's Saturday.

The Men's EHF EURO 2020, the first to be played with 24 teams, in Sweden, Austria and Norway will take place from 9 to 26 January 2020. The championship had originally been scheduled to start on 10 January 2020.

Furthermore, the EHF Executive Committee has confirmed that for the first time in EHF EURO history, the match for third place and the final will be played separately from each other, with the bronze medal match to be played on Saturday, 25 January 2020, and Sunday, 26 January, being exclusively reserved for the final. Additionally, in the new schedule, the 5/6 placement match will be moved from Friday, 24 January ahead of the semi-finals, to Saturday, 25 January, when it will take place ahead of the match for third place.

The heart of the final weekend will be Stockholm's Tele2 Arena, a 20,000+ capacity stadium. EHF EURO 2020 marks the first time that the championship's final weekend is played in a football stadium.

"We will be putting a huge emphasis on the event atmosphere at the final weekend in Stockholm. Our aim is to achieve that 'when the matches are played, Europe comes to a halt'. We are looking into a high-level entertainment concept, cooperation with local hospitality facilities and much more," says Krister Bergström, CEO of Handbolls-EM 2020 AB in Sweden

The impact of the new playing schedule is not limited to the final weekend though. With the first matches being played on 9 January and a subsequent re-scheduling of the preliminary round, there are no more parallel matches in two venues in one country on the same day. The new schedule makes it possible that the fans can watch all matches within each host country in the playing halls.

"The new schedule brings us one step closer to our mutual aim to provide the best possible conditions for the participating teams as well as for all handball fans who will come to cheer for them. With the 'New Nidarohallen' in Trondheim, a new venue seating 8,000 people will be built in time for EHF EURO 2020, and we are looking forward to welcoming the fans in January 2020," says Kia Otnes, Project Manager Men's EHF EURO 2020 in Norway

For the teams with the longest travel distances following the preliminary round, a rest day in addition to their travel day has been added.

"We are really pleased with the new playing schedule. The fact that there are no more parallel matches in one nation is a huge thing for all fans. Furthermore it leads to the advantage that after the preliminary round the groups with the longest travel distances have an additional rest day in addition to their travel day," says Bernd Rabenseifner, Secretary General Austrian Handball Federation.

TICKET SALES FOR EHF EURO 2020 START ON 24 OCTOBER

Come 9 January 2020, handball fans across the world will witness a premiere, as this day marks the start of the Men's EHF EURO 2020 (9 to 26 January): the first to be played in three countries; the first to be played with 24 nations and the first that finishes with the final in a football stadium.

Less than 15 months out of the championship's start, fans have the opportunity to save themselves the best seats in the house, as ticket sales start on 24 October at 11:00 hrs. Tickets can be bought via the official website, www.ehf-euro.com.

The launch coincides with the start of the EHF EURO 2020 Qualifiers, featuring 32 teams out of which 20 will qualify for EHF EURO 2020, as well as the first matches of the EHF EURO Cup, a new tournament format featuring 2020 hosts, Sweden, Austria, Norway, and EHF EURO 2018 champions, Spain.

Tickets will be available for all stages of the tournament in all three countries. While single day tickets across all categories will be available for the matches played in Sweden, the focus will be on group and venue packages in Austria and Norway for this first ticket release.

Further ticket releases are planned for 9 January 2019 ('One year to go'), 17 April 2019 (Easter release) and for 1 July 2019, as all 24 participating will be known by then. It also known already that Sweden will play the preliminary round in the Scandinavium in Gothenburg; Austria start in the Stadthalle in Vienna and Norway in Trondheim.

If they qualify, Denmark will play the preliminary round in the Malmö Arena, Croatia in the Stadthalle Graz and Germany in Trondheim. The 'New Nidarhallen' – the venue is currently being built – in the Norwegian city is the only arena that hosts two preliminary round groups.

The first matches in Graz (group A) and Trondheim (group C) are played on 9 January. 10 January will the action being started in Vienna (group B), Trondheim (group D) and Gothenburg (group F); group E in Malmö joins last on 11 January.

EHF EURO CUP

The European Handball Federation has set a new milestone on the road to the Men's EHF EURO 2020.

Starting the last week of October 2018, parallel to the Men's EHF EURO 2020 Qualifiers, the three 2020 host nations, Sweden, Austria and Norway, together with 2018 champions Spain will play the first matches of the newly introduced EHF EURO Cup.

The competition sees the four participating nations facing each other in home and away matches. These matches form the participants' - all four are directly qualified to EHF EURO 2020 - very own road to the final tournament in January 2020.

"The EHF EURO Cup is an important milestone on the road to EHF EURO 2020. In particular for the three hosts Sweden, Austria and Norway, as well as for champions Spain, but also for the EHF. Not only will we see four top-class teams competing against each other and getting ready for the championship; this new competition will also offer a range of new promotion and marketing opportunities for handball," says Martin Hausleitner, EHF Secretary General

The first two matches are Norway vs Austria and Sweden vs Spain on 24 October followed by Spain vs Norway and Austria vs Sweden on 28 October. Sweden will play their first match in the 13,000-capacity Malmö Arena, which is also a preliminary and main round venue for EHF EURO 2020.

Austria will play their first home match against Sweden in the newly built Sportpark Graz. The match on 28 October will mark the official opening of the 3,000-capacity arena.

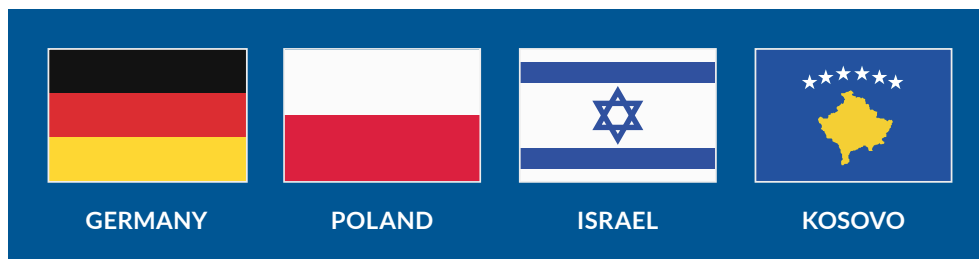

Norway will play their first home match in the Stjørdalshallen close to Trondheim. Furthermore, the Norwegian Handball Federation has signed a contract with TV2 Norway to broadcast all matches involving Norway.

EHF EURO 2020 VENUES

The Men's EHF EURO 2020 will be played from 9 to 26 January 2020. It will be the first to be played with 24 teams and the first to be hosted by three nations. Sweden will organise two preliminary and one main round group, plus the final weekend. The venues chosen are Gothenburg's Scandinavium, Malmö Arena and Tele 2 Arena in Stockholm (final weekend only), a 20,000+ capacity stadium. Austria will host two preliminary round groups and one main round group in Wiener Stadthalle and Stadthalle Graz. The 'New Nidarohallen' in Trondheim, which is currently under construction and will seat 8,000 people, will be the venue for the two preliminary round groups played in Norway.
